W sobotę, 19 sierpnia mieszkańcy Pszczyny wzięli udział w mieszczańskim weselu. Po raz kolejny pszczyński rynek zamienił się w największą salę weselną w Polsce. Młodą parę powitali burmistrz Pszczyny Dariusz Skrobol oraz zastępca burmistrza Magdalena Czarnecka. Nie trzeba było długo czekać, aby uczestnicy imprezy wzięli udział w potańcówce. Przeboje z dawnych lat pozwoliły poczuć klimat lat 20. XX wieku.

- W weekend spotkałem wielu mieszkańców Pszczyny, którzy postanowili wspólnie z nami wziąć udział w święcie naszej gminy. To był wyjątkowy czas. Zarówno w sobotę, jak i niedzielę bawiliśmy się na pszczyńskim rynku. Dziękuję za udział. Dziękuję wszystkim zaangażowanym w organizację wydarzeń w ramach Festiwalu Moja Pszczyna: Talenty i Pasje - powiedział burmistrz Pszczyny Dariusz Skrobol.
